LOCAL BOOSTER ORGANIZATION GETS OFF TO FLYING START

Wire Thieves Arrested

JUNK DEALER IDENTIFIES ROBBERS

G. H. Lozier, J. T. Kane, and E. Kane, all three of Oakland were arrested yesterday afternoon by Officer Shirley and are being held at the local station on a charge of stealing a large quantity of wire from the Richmond Dredging company and disposing of it to Oakland junk men.

Several of the junk men were taken in Oakland recently and charged wiah handling stolen goods, the wire having been recognized by agents of the company from which it had been stolen.

The second hand dealers sought to save themselves by informing the police where they had secured the material and a search ending in the arrest of the three men now in the city jail was the result.

Oakland police officers accompanied by the junk dealers were in Richmond yesterday afternoon and the Oakland officers assisted in making the arrests. The men have been identified by the junk dealers.

MOOSE TO PLAY WHIST THURSDAY

The Loyal Order of Moose will give its second monster whist party at Moose hall Thursday evening. The 24th of February, Five elegant prizes will be awarced to the players making the highest scores. A dance and social time will follow the playing of whist. Fifty cents will be charged for score cards.

The committee which is arranging the details for the party consists of the following members: A. S. Shannon, chairman, Chas. Donnelly, Zeb Knott, Bert Flynn and Joe Gordella.

CONSUMMATE BIG REALTY DEAL

James Vanderzweip, local realty dealer has just consummated one of the biggest deals handled in this city for the past year. Thirty four lots in the San Pablo-Cutting Boulevard section of the city have been sold to Mrs. Lydia Lagarde, a wealthy San Francisco woman, for $24,000.

It is understood that Mrs. Lagarde will erect dwelling houses for sale or rent on the property and perhaps a business block if lesses or buyers are available.

MRS. GRENFELL DIED LAST EVENING

Mrs. Thomas Grenfall, prominent in Richmond musical circles and the wire of Thomas Grenfall, a pumper in the employ of the Standard oil company died at the family residence at 528 Fifth street last evening. Besides her husband Mrs. Grenfall is survived by a son Thomas, Jr., who is also a resident of Richmond.

Mrs. Grenall has been a resident of thi scity fo rthe past nine years and previous to her illness conducted a class in music. She was an active member of ahe local lodge of Royal Neighbors. She was 42 years of age.

No arrangements have been made for the funeral.

The remains are at the Smallwood Undertaking Parlors.

Doc Hits It Up Didn't Tell Us

Here's a good one on C. L. In perusing the columns of a Modesto exchange we chanced to let our vigilant optic on the following: Commends our Speed Officers.

Yesterday we referred to a letter which severely arraigned the motorcycle officers of this county. Below we publish one of the kind of letters thas are received very frequently and which offers excellent evidence that the critics of the Fresno real estater is unwarasted. The same officer made the arrest in both cases:

Mr. W. H. Rice,
Justice of Peace,
Modesto, Calif,

Dear sir:

I have your letter of January 14th and greatly appreciate your courtesy in not compelling me to return to Modesto. Should you wish a personal representative I would be placed to refer you to Mr. C. D. Swan of the Union Savings bank of your city.

Ihave no doubt that the deputy sheriff's notation of my speed was correct and I shall be glad to enter a plea of guilty in your court to the charges in the complaint and pay such fine as in your judgment is proper.

Thanking you for your courtesy in this matter, and also the gentlemanly manner of the arresting officer., I remain,

Respectfully yours
DR. C. L. ABBOTT.

CARLSON WINS DIFFICULT CASE

Assistant District Attorney T. M. Carlson received numerous compliments yesterday for having won a judgement for $250 in the justice court for Carol E. Marshall, son of a local painter.

Carlson represented Marshall in a suit to collect $250 from the Peacock automobile company of Oakland. The auto company had had Marshall as its local agent for a cycle car and he claimed wages due. The auto company was represented by Edward R. Ellason of Oakland.

WIERDA ISSUES MANY PERMITS

W. H. Campbell erected a shed on the South Side of Elm Street, $100.

Louis Sigr alterations on one story cottage on the south side of Nevin between Fifth and Sixth, $600 Chas. Johnson Contractor.

William Wallbank who recently returned from the hospital at Martinez after undergoing treatment for la grippe and high fever wishes to extend his sincere thanks to ahe local lodges of Stags, Eagles, Sons of St. George and the Bartenders Union of which latter organization he is the president, for the kind ness shown him during his sickness.

RICHMOND CHAMBER OF COMMERCE IS OFFICIAL NAME OF NEW ORGAN— ENTHUSIASM RIFE AT BIG MEETING

The enthusiasm of the first meeting of the Chamber of Commerce was carried over into the second meeting which was held last night at the auditorium of Lincoln school. An attendance fully as large as that which met last Friday night was present and entered with great interest into the discussion of the many things which came before the meeting.

It was decided to start an immediate campaign for members so that the largest possible may be in the list when the construction and by-laws are ready for adoption. W. F. Petillion was named as captain of a rival membership committee to oppose Henry Wahl and his committee in gathering members for the organization. A lively contest will be started and at the conclusion the losing side will give a banquet to the winner.

A board of thirteen directors will be elected at the next meeting of the Chamber of Commerce which will be held at the school house on next Friday evening. A nominating committee composed of E. H. Harlow, E. M. Ferguson, T. O. H. Bozaleky, G. E. Milnes and C. B. O'Hara will meet next week and name twenty-six candidates from which the thirteen will be selected.

The by-laws committee was not prepared to submit their report last night and were given further time. A close study is being made of the constitution in use in San Rafael, Santa Rosa, Napa and other places where booster bodies have been recently organized.

Already sixty members have joined the organization and many more are expected by the next meeting.

Among the members present on last night were Rev. Frank Linder, pastor of the Wesley M. E. church who gave a talk at the meeting on his experiences with booster organizations. "I want to do my share in this Chamber of Commerce as a citizen of Richmond" said the pastor. His remarks were received with applause by the meeting.

Mr. Walibank will be forced to take several days rest before he resumes his duties as bartender at the Cottage bar.

NEW PASTOR FOR BAPTIST CHURCH

In response to a call which was issued to him last November when he preached here two weeks. Reverend R. B. Walker, P. H. D., of Los Angeles will preach morning and evening at the services of the Calvary Baptist church tomorrow.

While here last December Reverend Walker made a marked impression o nthe members of the congregation of the Baptist church and he was informed of its desire to have him for a regular minister after the congregation had unanimous voted in favor of him.

Dr. Walker was associated with the Hollywood Baptist church of Los Angeles for a period of five years, during which time he became well and favorably known to the entire southern section of the state.

He entertained the call that was extended to him during his last visit here and will give his final answer tomorrow as to whether he will remain in this city.

The Calvary Baptist church has been without a pastor since Reverend Wilson left last December.

Dr. Walker has the endorsement of the Southern California Baptist convention and is a man of learning and pleasing personality.

RICHMOND MAENNOR CHOR TO GIVE DANCE AND SOCIAL TONIGHT

Plans were completed at a meeting of the Richmond Maenner Chor society last evening for the social dance and banquet which is to be given this evening at A. O. U. W. Hall the funds from which are to be applied to the money needed for the construction of a "German House".

The Maenner Chor will be assisted by the Hermann Sons and Hermana sisters and committees have been appointed from the three lodges to conduct the affair this evening.

An invitation is extended to all dance lovers of Richmond and particularly the Germanic people of the city to be present at the affair.

The committee in charge consists o the following members: Joe Hirth A. Markstein, Henry Leurer, and John Leurer.

A good time is assured all who attend.

STORY HOUR AT THE LIBRARY

At the library story hour this Saturday the chief story to be told is Hans Anderson's "Nightingale", a beautiful tale of the Emporer of China and the little gray songbird that dwelt in his garden. The other story, "Hafiz, the Stone-cutter" is a lesson in contentment.

All children are invited to come to the story hour which are held in the children's room every Saturday at 3:00 p. m.

LET UNIONISTS CONTRIBUTE ONE HOURS' PAY TO DESPOILED HATTERS

"The Danbury Hatters have performed a service of historic importance in the struggle for industrial freedom," declares the American Federation of Labor executive council, in a circular issued to all unions calling on organized workers to contribute the wages of an hour's labor, the second hour of the work day or shift of January 27, 1916, for the benefit of despoiled Danbury Hatters.

The council's action is under authority of the American Federation of Labor convention, held in San Francisco last November "The plight in which the Hatters of Danbury, Conn., find themselves arouses the concern and the sympathy of all the workers as well as of all the liberty-loving citizens of America," says the executive council, which recounts the injustices trade unionists have suffered by reason of court interpretations of the Sherman anti-trust law that human beings are in the same category with commodities, and are subject to injunction processes that denied them rights guaranteed free men and women.

The Hatters' resistance against these iniquities, together with court processes financed by the American Federation of Labor, emphasized these wrongs and resulted in the passage by Congress of the Clayton amendment to the Sherman anti-trust law in which it is declared that "The labor power of a human being is not a commodity or article of commerce."

In addition to this clear declaration that there is a difference between labor power and articles of commerce—to which trust laws properly apply—the Clayton amendment limits and regulates the use of the injunction writ, and forbids its use for purposes against which the workers had so long and so justly complained.

This establishment of fundamental rights, this acknowledgment by Congress that workers own their labor power—without interference or direction by law-maker or judge—is an epoch in American industrial history.

The men around whom this successful battle revolved however, are now destitute. Their bank deposits and homes have been attached to insure payment of an approximate $100,000 court award that was made before the Clayton act was passed. Many of the despoiled Hatters have reached an age that they are no longer able to work, and with their homes and savings swept from them they are in a destitute condition as a result of a fight that ended so triumphantly for American toiling men and women.

On this phase of the struggle, the executive council of the American Federation of Labor says:

"The Danbury Hatters did not falter in that which they did for the benefit of all organized labor and for all the workers of the country. They did their duty; they made the test and upn them has fallen the consequences of the injustice of the then existing conditions. All other workers participate in the benefits which have grown out of their struggle, and it is but just that they should also help to relieve the victims. If the Danbury Hatters or the Hatters' organization were left to bear the full weight of the burden, it will mean to them great suffering and great hardship. Every member of organized labor is urged to do his duty in this matter and to bear his share in the common struggle to establish industrial justice.

Members of local unions should pay their contributions to their local secretaries, who should forward the sum collected to Secretary Morrison of the A. F. of L., Washington, who will receipt the same and forward it to Secretary Lawlor of the United Hatters of North America.

This money shall be used for the exclusive purpose of relieving the Hatters who were made the victims of the greed and rapacity of the so-called "Anti-Boycott Association" and Loewe, the Danbury hat manufacturer. Secretary Lawlor will publish a complete list of all contributions received and the payments made and to whom.

The date agreed to by the convention—January 27—was selected as particularly appropriate, because it is the birthday of the president of the American Federation of Labor, who has given a lifetime of devotion to the cause of labor and humanity.

The executive council's circular closes as follows:

"Meetings for the purpose indicated might be held with fitting exercises to help bind the organized toilers of America more closely together with bonds of fraternity, sympathy and mutual helpfulness and a greater determination to struggle unitedly on for the dawn of a better day among the toilers of America.

"Men and women of labor, give an hour—an hour of your labor—in a most rigateous cause!"

LABOR LEGISLATION TELLS

From the attitude and demeanor of judge and court officials it was apparent that labor legislation in California begins to tell.

The fact that Union labor worked for many years to establish the eligibility of all citizens, regardless of property rights, to become qualified as jurors and which law had been disregarded in the trial of Mathew A. Schmidt was driven home by Chief Counsel Coghlan with sledge hammer blows and with telling effect. But regardless of arguments, evidence and facts, Los Angeles' face had to be saved. Regardless of the facts submitted relative to the misconduct of the jury which brought in the verdict of guilty and fixed the punishment at life imprisonment, when it was shown that certain members of the jury had been separated in violation of the statute, their verdict had to stand in order to appease the powers that be, and which have ruled with mailed fist, through Otis and his henchmen, Huntington's Hell and the "People's aPridise" in Southern California. But the Southland is still a part of the great State that boasts of its pioneer sunshine, fruit and flowers, and the defendant and his attorneys have still faith in the courts and the law of the land.

HAYWARD MEETS RICHMOND IN THE OPENER

A meeting of the Central Alameda County Athletic league was held at the home of the president of the league in Niles last night. The schedule for the coming year were drawn up at the meeting and several other less important matters attended to. Four high schools will be represented in the league. They are Richmond Centervill, Hayward and Livermore.

The first game on the schedule will be a baseball game, which will be played March 4. Hayward will clash with Richmond team on the latter's grounds, while Centerville will play Livermore at Livermore. A track meet, at which all the schools will be represented, will be the next on the bill. The meet will be held at the Hayward High school's grounds. May 6 is the date set aside for the meet. Each school will be represented with two teams, a 210-pound aggregation and an unlimited team. No football games were scheduled.

INSTITUTES AT THEATER PARTY

Members of the Young Men's Institute and Young Ladies Institute from Oakland, Berkeley, Alameda, Richmond and Alameda County councils, fully five hundred strong, participated last (Wednesday) night in what was the largest theater party ever given in Oakland, when under the auspices of the District Council of the organization, a joint affair was held at the Oakland Pantages theater. The big playhouse was turned over entirely to the Institute members. The theater was gaily decorated, and throughout the program streamers and confetti filled the air. Y. L. I. Y. M. I. pennants flew everywhere, and several special features were added to the bill in addition to the regular show.

The boxes were occupied by the guests of honor and officers of the various councils and the Catholic organizations of Alameda County. Committees from the various Institutes were at the door to receive their delegations, which came in bodies from every branch of the order.

The affair was handled under the direction of the official District Council. Harry Paszeckerly of Oakland being specially active in the arrangements. The Berkeley committee as also active and Hanna Council had a large delegation present.

The affair is one of the several big events planned for the coming inter by the council.

MARYSVILLE STRIKE LAST BUT SHORT TIME

MARYSVILLE (Yuba Co.), January 20—Marysville had a real, but short-lived, strike when three painters who are members of the Painters' Local, but who refuse to affiliate with the Building Trades Council, started to work on the Universal Restaurant, which is being renovated. Carpenters on the job immediately quit.

The carpenters won the strike, for later the Painters' Local put on three men who are affiliated with the Building Trades Council, and the work proceeded without further friction.

AT THE RICHMOND

This story has to do with the scheme of three of Europe's greatest diplomaas to make a new map of the world, ignoring England and America. How all their clever plots and schemes are upset by an impetuous young American in love with the Grand Duchess, make this one of the most unusual plays ever seen on the screen.

Supporting Mr. Roberts are Charlie Blackwell, Miss Dorothy Davenport, James Neill, Horace B. Carpenter and Frank Elliott and other members of the Lasky all star organization.

There are three other attractions on the bill in addition to the headline r. Hearst-Selig current events, "A Case of Eugenics" featuring Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew and the humorous playlet, "A Bargain in Brides."

FAST SCRAPS STAGED AT MAPLE HALL LAST NIGHT--FANS HAPPY

"Doc" Morris undertook a difficult proposition when he attempted to revive the fight game in Richmond, because that one time popular pass time has been deceased for some time when the veteran promoter took hold of it. But Doc has succeeded in doing what looked like the impossible for last night at Maple Hall a good crowd of the old time rabid bugs turned out and yelled themseves hoarse as the battlers merrily walloped each other to the tune of four rounds apiece, excepting those who were knocked out before the lively sessions were ended.

To say that the fights were good would not be doing them justice They were better than that.

As was expected the scrap between Joe Rose and Joe Perry, both of San Francisco was the stellar attraction. The two lads did not stop pounding away from the time they entered the ring until the gong tapped at the end of one of the most satisfacaory draws that has been seen here in many days.

Although it may be safely said that this was the most attractive bout of the evening the main event also kept the fans on their toes during the entire four rounds. The lanky lads performed very creditably and when Terry O'Keefe was awarded the decision it was generally felt that he deserved it although the other man did excellent work also.

Much credit is due Jack Morode for the speedy manner in which he disposed of Charles Lloyd the colored boxer. Lloyd was meat for the hard hitting white man and the scrap ended in the first round.

Young San Langford stopped Eddie Rose in the second round with a terrific wallop.

Morris gave the fans more than their money's worth last night having one more bout than he had agreed to provide.

Phil Barry acted as announcer, Dr. Blake as physician and Dan Noziglia as timekeeper. Dan kept tab on the boys with an excelsior stop watch from Atterbury's.

Jack Bond acted as referee, and James Arnold, Bert Curry and Joseph Rose, as judges.

MANY AT RED FRONT SALE

The largest crowd of Richmond shoppers that ever attended a sale in Richmond gathered at the Red Front store yesterday afternoon. The management sincerely regrets that some of those who attended were not given the immediat attention of the clerks but the volume of business made this impossible.

Today an extra force will be put on in order that all who may wish to make purchases may be given first class service.

The variety store is going out of business in order that the manager may attend to the enormous business which is being handled by the eBrkeley branch of the concern.

The fact that the lease had expired on the quarters occupied by the Red Front was another reason for its closing. An invitation is extended to all Richmond buyers to come today and take advantage of the excellent opporaunity to secure high class goods at less than cost.

LEAP YEAR CLUB ENTERTAINED

Miss Ruby Stenmark and her sister Mrs. Charlie Morisetti entertained the Leap Year Club of San Francisco and a few of her friends from Richmond. The afternoon was spent very pleasantly.

Some Classic dances were given by Ruby Stenmark and Inez Tesck.

A solo was rendered by Miss Peggy Parker. A piano solo was rendered by Miss Jewell O'Rourke. A reading on Women's Suffrage was given by Miss Lillian Thorston.

Those present were: Miss Irene Gissloin, from San Francisco, Inez Tesche, Gladys Day Bessie Day, Irene Barrescale, Edith Sandbury, Edith Sandbury, Mary Classey, Martha Clansey, Mrs. Charlie Morisecate Jr., Lillian Thorton, Peggy Parker, Jewell O'Rourke, Ruby Stenmark.
